Quarter 1

Jason seems to be having difficulty adjusting to fifth grade. He is a bright child and does manifest a desire to learn, but he quickly loses interest and struggles to stay focused. He is often withdrawn and uninterested in class activities.

D. Whitehouse

Quarter 2

Jason continues to have a problem with his class concentration. He struggles to complete his work on time and often fails to turn in his homework.

D. Whitehouse

Quarter 3

Jason is a bright child who has not performed his best this quarter. He is often preoccupied and frequently disruptive during class.

D. Whitehouse

Quarter 4

Jason has not reached his potential this year. Although his grades are adequate to move to ~~seventh~~ <sup>SIXTH</sup> grade, it has more to do with his innate intelligence than his applying himself.
